GRADE SCHOOL SETS REFERENDUM DATE

ANTIOCH TOWNSHIP LIBRARY
757 N. MAIN ST.
ANTIOCH, ILL. 60002

The Antioch Grade School Board has ended public speculation by naming Saturday, July 15th as the date for a two part referendum package.

The referendum would be comprised of a $.35 increase in the district's Education Fund rate and a $.03 hike for the Transportation Fund. Both figures are based on $100 of assessed valuation.

Talk of a referendum has been almost constant since the Board made $175,000 in budget cuts on March 28. The cuts, which KO'ed sports and all extra-curricular activities (including Band), was called by many Board members as a "return to the three R's."

At the time of the cuts, the Board indicated it would not run a referendum until such time as

"our citizenry voices a strong desire for a referendum." Evidently, the desire was provided due to the efforts of the so-called "Committee of Eight."

This group, made up of two representatives from the district's four schools scoured P.T.A.'s and other parents groups in search of persons determined to support and work to pass the issue.

According to Clinton Glover, spokesman and a member of the committee, the public expressed just such a desire at a May 23rd meeting.

Reading from a prepared statement, Glover said, "The consensus of the public in attendance was that a referendum was needed in the Educational Fund and the vast majority in attendance would support it."

In addition to the statement, the group presented a 325 signature petition to demonstrate the support.

District Superintendent Henry Meyer said that referendum planning would begin immediately. He also called on all citizens interested in working for a referendum to contact the district administration.

Meyer observed that the $.38 figure being asked is equal to rate decreases experienced during the last two fiscal years. According to Meyer the decrease was due to payment and retiring of revenue bonds.

Board president, Gerald VanderMeer perhaps capped it best when he said, "we've got to throw it up and let the people make the choice."

District officials indicated that absentee voting would begin June 21, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekdays at the Upper Grade School, 800 Highview Drive.

Sub-County Sewage Plan - What Effect on Antioch ?

According to Robert Degan, Lake County Director of Public Works, an agreement will soon be signed with the Village of Fox Lake making the municipality's plant the hub of a sub-county sewer system.

The plan calls for the Fox Lake plant to be the treatment center with three municipalities and sanitary districts currently being considered connected by interceptor lines. This project would later become an integral part of the county-wide sewer system.

Under the present set-up, the project would be completed in four phases. First on the bill would be Fox Lake and Long Lake, with Antioch in the second phase. Work is scheduled to be completed on the second phase by 1975.

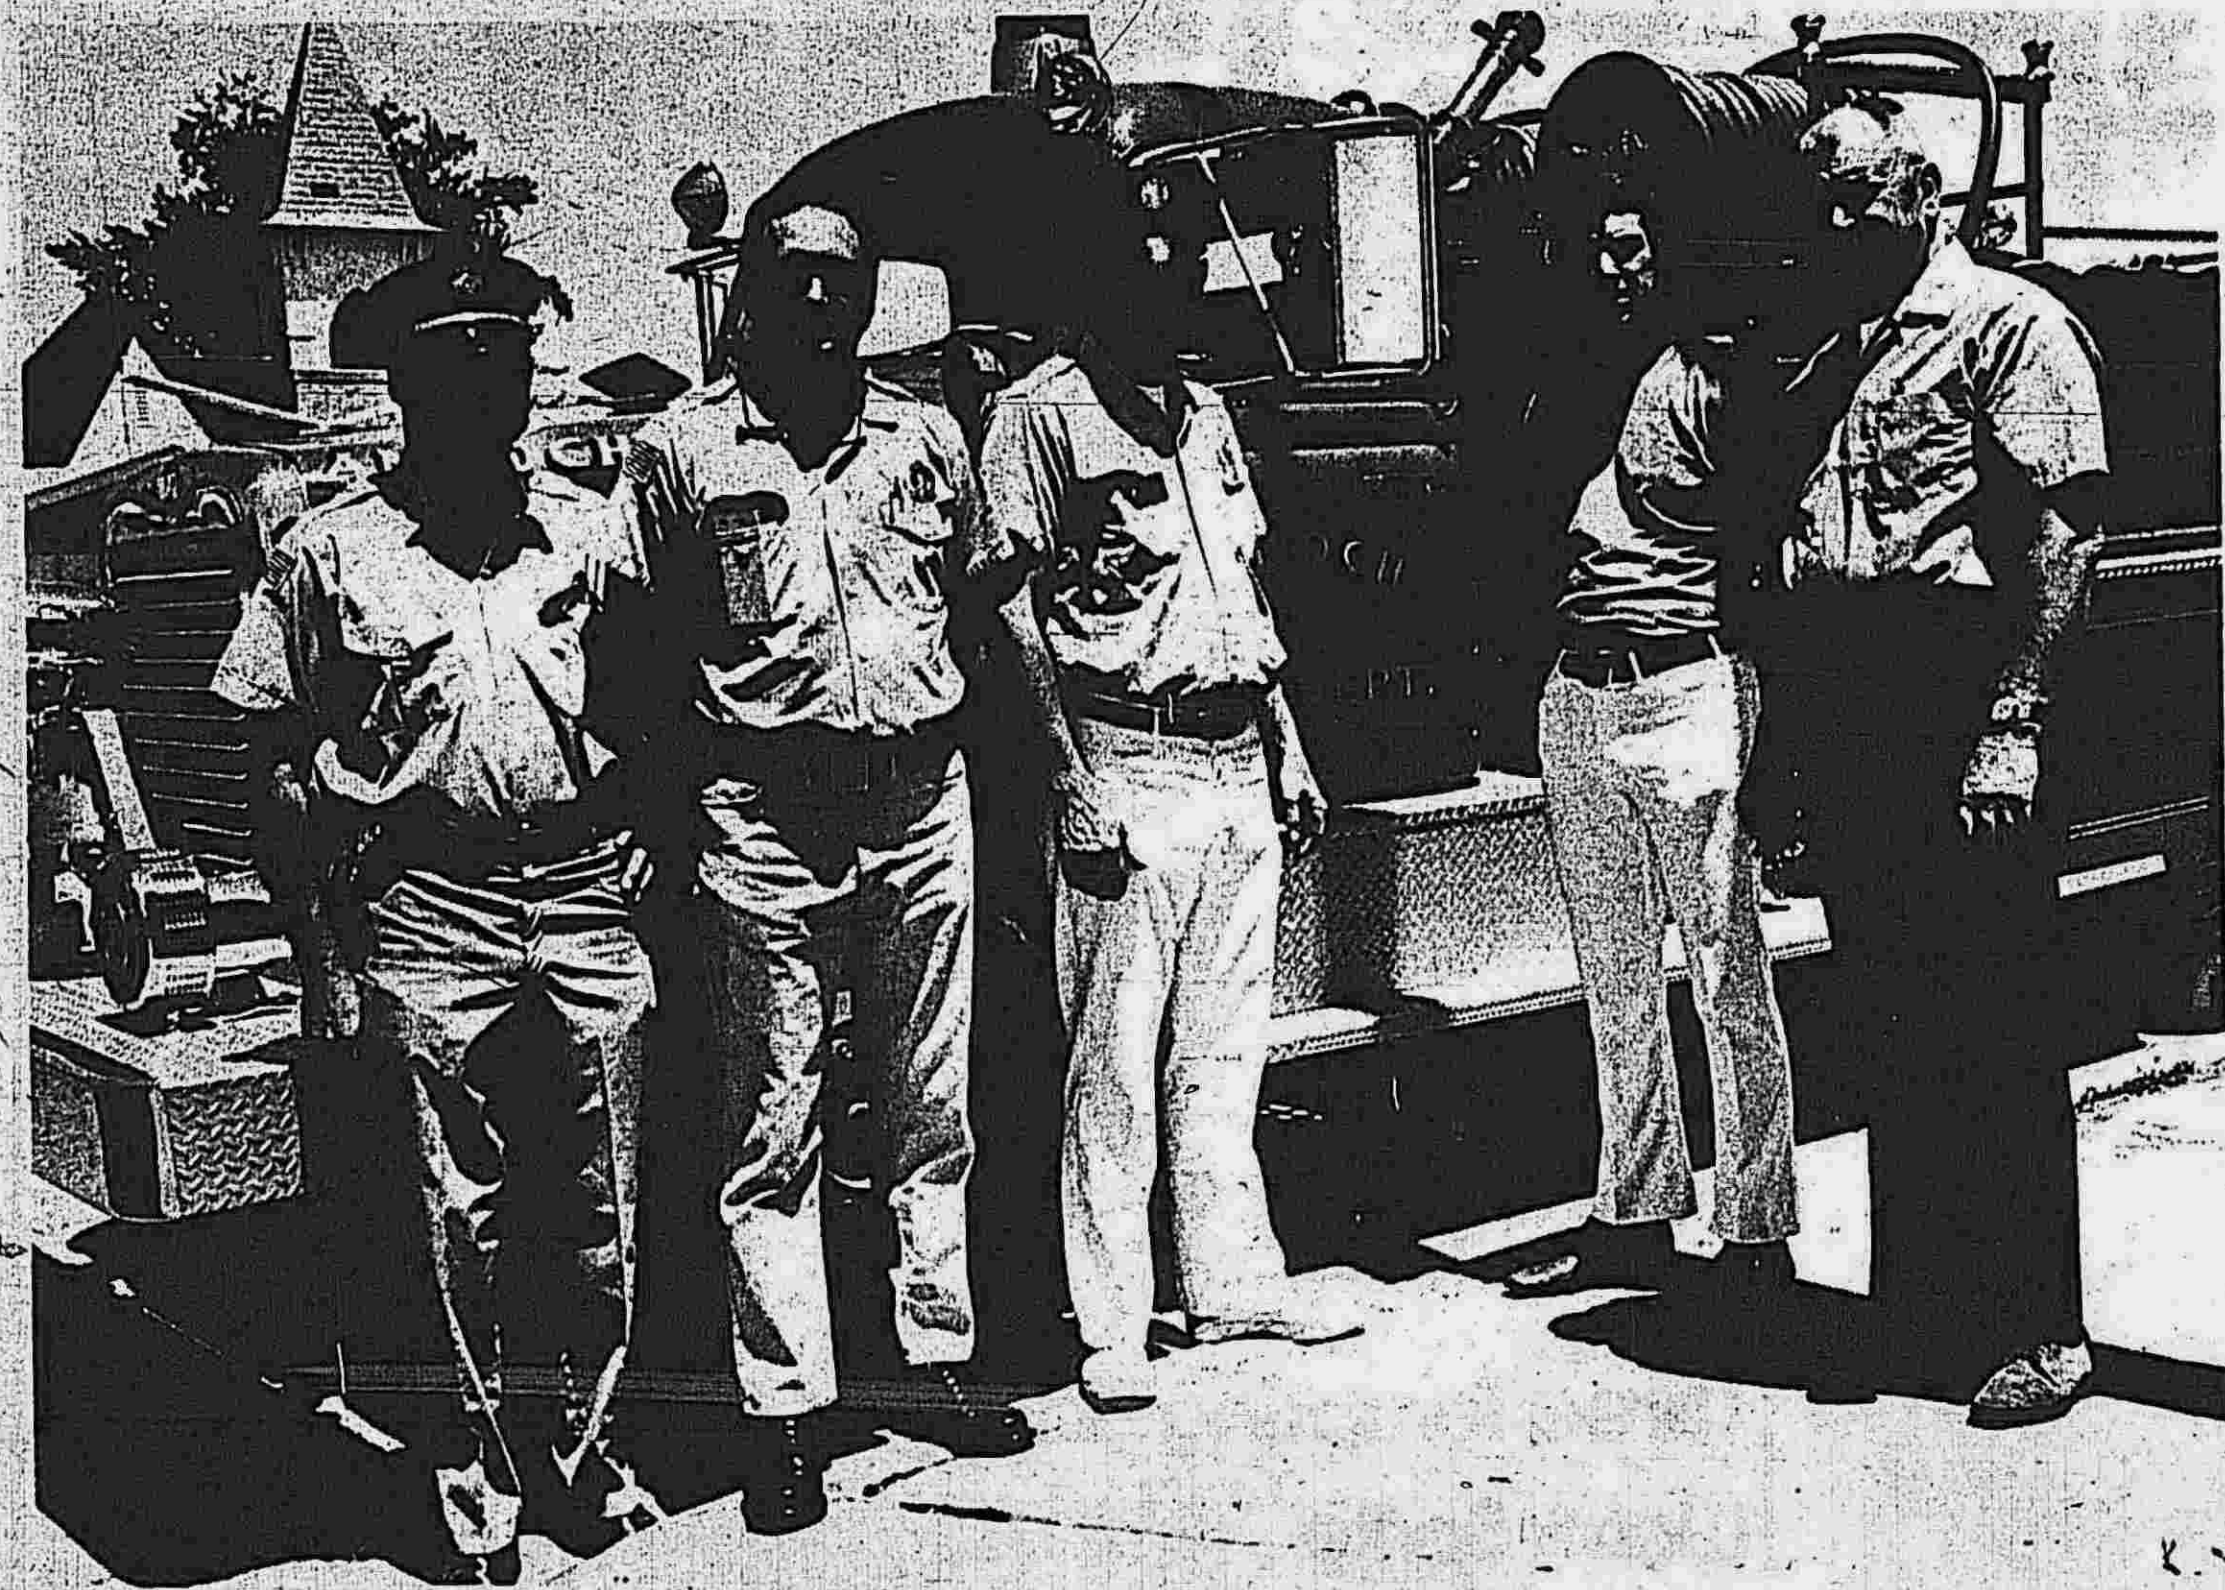

The plant would be located on 9.2 acres of land in an industrial park with more land available for future growth. It would consist of a secondary and phosphate removal operation. Effluent would be piped into the middle of the Fox River.

Degan assured wary ecologists that the plant would pass or exceed all Environmental Protection Agency Standards and that discharge, while not pure enough to drink, "would not damage the Fox River or the Chain O' Lakes system."

As previously reported, the project would be funded by federal grants to the tune of 80 percent with the remainder made up through the sales of revenue bonds and connection fees. Under the plan area tax rates would not be affected.

There has been some hesitation on the part of certain municipalities to join the project due to the fear of inordinate control on the part of Fox Lake and its mayor, Joseph Armondo.

However, Degan indicated that sanitary districts and municipalities,

FIREMEN'S DANCE

Antioch Rotary Club members and Antioch Volunteer Firemen canvassed the area door to door Saturday, the Firemen selling tickets to the 59th Annual Firemen's dance to be held on this coming Saturday night June 24th at the fire station on Orchard Street. Featuring music by the George Olisar and Gerry Mumford Orchestra the dance will begin at 9 p.m. with donation of $1.

Rotary members concluded their door to door distribution of Red Ball stickers within the First Fire Prevention District of Antioch.

Families are asked to place one Red Ball decal on the bedroom window of each child in the house, alerting firemen to evacuate those rooms first. Red Balls are available at the Village Hall, Police Dept., Illinois Bell Business Office, Antioch Drugs, Pittman Pontiac, First National Bank, Webb's Boat House, Antioch Savings & Loan, Lyons and Ryan Ford, and the Antioch Advertiser.

Board Hears More Housing Plans

The Antioch Village Board dealt with several more proposed housing additions at their June 19th meeting.

Included in their number was a proposal by former mayor Murrill "Missouri" Cunningham to develop 42 units, either apartments or condominiums, on a tract of land near Cunningham Drive and the Village Sewage plant.

The land, two irregularly shaped parcels, has both apartment (R-5) and light business (B-1) zoning. Cunningham requested that the Village grant the smaller piece apartment zoning.

Kicker for the agreement was the fact that the land contains a portion of Cunningham Drive, which was never dedicated as a village street.

Cunningham called for a "mutually agreeable solution." After hearing the brief testimony, board members agreed they had no objections to the plan.

In another case the board sent on to the Zoning Board a petition for a zoning change on a 23 acre plot near the Village Green subdivision. The proposal will also be considered by the Village Plan Commission.

The last proposal heard was a petition on behalf of William

Grass Lake School Takes Action

At the June 13, 1972 Board of Education meeting the board took actions regarding the Grass Lake School programs and curriculum in lieu of the recent defeat of the building program referendum. Supt. Wm. Hart reports that the main changes are going to be centered around dual use of the present facilities and continued efforts to reduce teacher-pupil ratios to promote more individual and small group instruction. Hart cited the board's decision to use the cafeteria facility as a teacher and student resource learning center, and having the students eat their lunches in the gymnasium. Teachers will be able to program students into the center for individual work and projects, reinforcement of missed work or special activities, and to expand regular classroom work to include specialized and enrichment areas. The board also is completing Life Safety Code recommendations involving the enclosure of the lower level stairwell.

Hart stated that a general office area will be constructed in the lobby to facilitate the record keeping and storage area of the school.

A $5,000 anticipation warrant was issued to meet the school's indebtedness in the building fund.

A board committee was established to work with Supt. Hart to evaluate the Board Policies. Recent changes in laws and board actions show the need for re-evaluation.

A proposed public relations program was presented for the board's consideration for the coming year. Major objectives of the program include:

1. To inform the community about the school.
2. Improve the cooperation efforts of parent and teachers in meeting the student needs.

Hart reported that the success of the program hinged on the total efforts of community, parents, teachers, and students.

Fire Guts Home

The home of Kenneth W. Stankus was dealt extensive damage by a June 20th fire.

Fire officials said the structure was gutted with heavy water and smoke damage. The loss was estimated at $15,000. There were no injuries.

such as Antioch, would have the right to inspect the operation, have a review over rates and would even meter the rate flows.

Antioch is now faced with the prospect of completing a major addition to its own plant at approximately the same time the interceptor would reach the village limits (1975).

Under the sub-regional plan, Antioch's current sewage facility would be retained as a storm water retention center and according to Degan "would have nothing to do with sewage treatment."

The matter is apparently now up to the Antioch Village Board. However, it was previously reported that the sewage plant will not conform to E.P.A. standards if it forgoes the addition and other improvements.

Where this leaves the village is uncertain, but Degan expressed the hope that the matter would be ironed out without the village spending needless funds on a plant that could be phased out before it goes into operation.

EDITORIAL LAW SERVES YOU

Much is now in the headlines about law and order. It is given labels to identify it; slogans to echo its merits and is squeezed into bizarre shapes to fit the particular leanings of political candidates.

However, law and order is not a difficult term to understand if you edit the facade. Simply put, law and order is the condition in which the various segments of society are maintained and preserved by obedience to the written rule of law.

It can be broken down even further to indicate a respect for the law and those that administer it.

Antioch's Polic Chief, of three weeks, Jack Wells, has shown by his initiative and innovations that he can be a very capable keeper of the peace. But knowledge, experience and competence are not enough.

If Wells is to do the type of job of which he is capable he must have the cooperation of the citizenry. Only then can there be true peace and harmony in the community.

If every citizen would look upon a police officer as a guardian of the law and respect his role and task, there would be little need for concerted action on the part of the force.

Laws were made with the protection of the individual in mind. But the individual also has an obligation to the law. To cooperate fully and earnestly remembering that he would expect no less if he were the victim of a criminal offense.

All too often citizens assume the mask of uninvolved when they are asked to cooperate with law enforcement authorities. And yet, it is these same persons that rant and rave when no one will step forth to aid them or bear witness.

Cases like these are all too frequent. With the result that all involved are eventually hurt as a criminal is freed and a wrong not righted.

To counteract this sort of regrettable occurrence, we urge all citizens to cooperate to the fullest extent in order that their rights as well as the rights of all are protected.

Congressman Robert McClory confers during tense moment during UN Conference on the Human Environment in Stockholm, Sweden. Left to right: Charles Orlebeke, Deputy Under Secretary for Policy Analysis and Program Evaluation, Department of Housing and Urban Development; Henry Diamond, Commissioner, New York State Commission on Environmental Conservation; Congressman McClory; and Mr. Laurence Rockefeller, Chairman of the Citizens Advisory Committee on Environmental Quality and Member of the Board of Governors of the National Park Foundation. The group of US delegates to the UN Conference devoted particular attention to problems of population growth, housing, education, transportation and related subjects.

Our Congressman

As a representative in the United States Congress and member of the United States Delegation to this Conference, I am pleased to be assigned particularly to the Committee dealing with the Planning and Management of Human Settlements for Environmental Quality (SUBJECT AREA No. 1).

I am impressed by the critical nature of this problem in almost every country, the extent to which the subject impinges upon virtually every aspect of the human environment, and by the fact that the theme of this Conference—Only One Earth—must likewise be the limit within which the problems of human settlements may be solved—since there is "only one earth" upon which the human species may be sustained.

The scientific information, and the reports of experts covering every conceivable discipline with which this Conference is concerned—have produced—and will continue to produce benefits to mankind which can be measured according to a variety of parameters. However, ultimately, as the Preparatory Committee has prescribed—and as this Conference will certainly conclude—action programs at international, national, and local levels will be required.

The expression that dominates many current environmental fears and solutions is that they are "so much rhetoric". Indeed, when talk—even at the level of an international conference—replaces action, such references are well grounded. In sum, the ultimate ideas and steps for effecting improvements in the human environment require the utmost in national and international co-operation and coordination—including the education and training of personnel charged with the responsibilities inherent in any environmental control programs.

The basis for all national action rests with the national parliaments or law-making bodies of our respective governments. Indeed, even national policies, whether enunciated by a government's chief executive or administrative heads, must be authorized or confirmed by appropriate legislative action. In addition, the funds which are essential to the implementation of national policies and governments. Of course, the source of funds, i.e. the revenues with which to defray such appropriations must be based upon enabling legislation.

But, bear in mind, that all of the educational and training programs, as well as authority for the research and development of plans and techniques, require legislative support. Even the movement of population and the control of population growth may be influenced by the legislative action. Furthermore, the agencies and administrative bodies which governments authorize for carrying out the planning of human settlements, the location of industrial developments, the establishment of power sources and transportation facilities can only be realized after the national parliaments or legislatures have passed laws which authorize such action.

Finally, all international arrangements and institutions require legislative authorization or approval. In the case of the United States, international co-operation in the form of treaties requires approval by the U.S. Senate. Other international action, in which the expenditure of funds of the United States may be involved, would require implementation through legislative action by both the House and the Senate.

I am not certain that either this Conference or all of the other meetings and conferences which are being held will render our lawmakers experts on the subject of the environment. It is fundamental that a great deal of expert counseling and advice should be made available to our national lawmakers and to the committees or commissions upon which they are represented. However, it is important that it be said here—and vital to the success of any action which is undertaken as a part of this Conference—or hereafter—that the critical need is for effective, comprehensive and long range legislative action and goals. This should be clearly understood—and we should go forth from these sessions determined to implement our decisions with action—legislative action; that is new laws—wherever required.

In my own case, the Congress of the United States represents the key to the solution to our national environmental problems. It is likewise an essential part of all international programs which may be developed to help protect and preserve the land and the sea and the air for this and future generations of mankind.

THE MANY FACES OF DR. KOPRIVA

Doctor, painter, musician. Many men would be content to bask under the sun of even one of these titles. However, it is a rare thing indeed to meet a man who fits comfortably under all three.

Such a man is James Kopriva, a 20 year resident of Antioch and a man accomplished in all three talents.

The grey-haired physician, known more as a straight shooter than for his bedside manner, categorized himself as definitely not "a country boy" but allowed that after twenty years "you acquire a love for the rural life."

He preferred to talk most about his paintings, some of which are now on exhibit in the lobby of a Chicago bank. "I just like to do it," he said. "I get a great sense of gratification to see something come out the way I want it."

He remarked that despite a busy schedule "you make time to pursue your habits. You have to budget your time."

"While I'm a very slow painter, still I paint a little here and a little there until it's completed."

The Chicago born doctor said that he did most of his paintings from slides. "Mainly I do landscapes, old buildings, things like that."

While he has done some paintings in the Antioch area, he noted that subjects were becoming increasingly difficult to find due to progress. "They're disappearing fast in Lake County."

As far as modern painting goes the doctor was quick to answer, "If your talking about a black square with a blue line: it stinks. There are some cubistic and modern things I like, don't get me wrong. But the squares of color - I think it's a big put on."

"I guess I'm very traditional. Not a modernist by any means," he said. Kopriva listed his favorite painter as Andrew Wyeth. "He's very detailed."

"I guess older people like my paintings best. They must like the traditional style."

When asked about his musical talents, the doctor was perceptively enlivened. "I like jazz," he said.

He elaborated that he had worked his way through college on the merits of his six piece group. "We played for dances and parties. Nothing elaborate."

"I haven't played much lately, but I did play at some of the amateur gatherings out here and for a few musicals performed in the area."

"My training was in classical music, but jazz just does something to me. It's like Louis Armstrong said 'If you have to ask, you ain't got it.'"

"Most of it I play by ear. You just feel it."

Responding to a question on the changes that had occurred during his twenty year tenure,

Dr. James Kopriva is pictured at work in the basement of his home on one of his recent paintings. (Staff Photo)

Kopriva unflinchingly answered "house calls. When I first got out here you used to have to go out to farms a lot. You were a country doctor then, but not anymore. You make very few house calls now."

Kopriva said he did not find his hobbies especially unusual for a doctor. "I know many, many doctors who paint. I don't see why people think doctors are anything much out of the ordinary. I guess the A.M. A.

has done a good job of propagandizing."

To the very end, the doctor preferred to soft-pedal any of his accomplishments, preferring instead to talk on general topics.

Evidently he is one of the few men able to wear three hats at the same time. All without feeling uncomfortable or an oddity.

I have been noticing a lot of new-born babies lately. It is sure wonderful to see these new people, and I know the thrill of a new mother when she looks at her own child, since Jim's and my first baby, Stacey, is going to be a year old next month already! Time does fly! This week's question is:

WHAT DO YOU THINK SHOULD BE CONSIDERED THE MOST IMPORTANT THING IN A PERSON'S LIFE, AND WHY?

Mr. Portalski, of Antioch, states, "I think minding your own business. Because that way you don't hurt anybody at any time. Live and let live. Do unto others as you would like to have done unto yourself."

Mrs. Walker, of Antioch, replied, "The most important thing in a persons life to me is their personality. I think if you have a pleasing and sweet personality, then everything just falls in place."

Mrs. James Frankhauser, of Antioch, said, "A purpose for living, lots of friends and mutual happiness. Everybody needs to be needed and to be successful in whatever they try to do. I think everybody needs friends in what they try to do."

Mrs. Mouw, of Antioch, answered, "There is quite a few things that I consider important. A couple of them are to do your utmost to be a very good mother. Also doing your best to keep clean."

Mrs. Richard Kotrba, of Antioch, commented, "Religion. With all the things happening in the world today I think religion is very important. Education is also very important. Of course, discipline is very important in life too. If you have discipline in a household, then in school, when you go out in the world you have a certain amount of respect for property and so forth. Love and understanding your parents, children and co-workers is important. Love covers a large territory. These all are basic fundamentals. Basically, I think it is how you are brought up in the home."

Maggie Miles, 11 years old, of Antioch, contributed, "I would think it would be another person because you wouldn't have any fun if you didn't have someone. You would be all lonely. You need someone to love."

Sharon Smith, 13 years old, of Antioch, added, "Money! You can buy everything and anything with it."

Mrs. Benjamin, of Antioch, responded, "Health. Without health you can't have much love. Without health you can't live. Without health you are an incapable person compared to the ones with it."

The most important thing in my life is God, personal happiness, and my family.

Peace till next week.

Camp Alpine To Close

Camp Alpine, long a favorite of vacationers and weekend recreation fans will apparently close its doors before the end of the year.

This, as a result of its purchase and absorption into the proposed enlargement of the Chain o'Lakes State Park.

The camp directors have been given the go ahead by the Lutheran Synod Convention to negotiate the sale of the 120 acre site.

According to Norman Mandehr, the Synod's Illinois Camping Director, the Illinois Department of Conservation and other state agencies have been attempting to purchase 80 acres of camp land, along with various other property in the vicinity.

Prior to learning of the bid to purchase it, the camp had been trying to expand its facilities. "However, the forty acres that would be left us is just not enough," Mandehr said.

When it became apparent that the camp would not be able to expand, the verdict was solved.

Mandehr said the camp directors received reports from other camps faced with the same situation. "The problem of being in the middle of a state park and the task of keeping people off private property is just too great."

Mandehr said, however, that he does not oppose the sale. "The camp is a desirable piece of property. Since the noise level of the gravel pit (also to be taken) is almost intolerable, it could be a move in the right direction."

The state has made an appraisal of the purchase price for 80 acres of the site and a second appraisal, to be held in mid-July, could include all 120 acres.

"In general," Mandehr said, "if paid a fair price we would, in fact be willing to turn the property over to the state."

He indicated that the Synod and its directors have looked at a few other possibilities, but nothing has been decided yet."

Board Meeting Rescheduled

The Antioch Village Board disposed of several brief matters at their June 19th meeting in addition to lengthy discussions on village development.

One of the first actions was to postpone the regularly scheduled board meeting of July 3rd. The date has been shifted to Wednesday, July 5th in order to enable the full number of trustees to participate.

Mayor Ray Toft named Charles "Tod" Maplethorpe to yet another tour of duty as Village Superintendent of Public Works. Maplethorpe is also the Village Fire Chief.

The Board was unanimous in their opposition to the General Assembly's House Bill No. 4531. The bill would consolidate all elections on two dates during the year. School and bond referenda would also be required to be held on one of the dates.

Board members felt that the bill could mean "lame duck" officials for the Village Board and other elective posts. Under this scheme, defeated officials would hold office for six months until the seating of the winners.

Nature Walk

participate.

The Illinois Dunesland Preservation Society is sponsoring a free nature hike at the Illinois Dunes Park Nature Preserve on June 24th.

According to the Society's president, Walter Vogel the public, as well as scouts and 4-Hers is cordially invited to

The hike will begin at 10:00 a.m. following assembly in the Preserve parking lot. Unique vegetation, geologic formations and wildlife of the park will be studied.

Hikers will be led on the joint by naturalists from the Dunesland Preservation Society.

Remember When?

REMEMBER WHEN? We don't, but we know that all it takes sometimes is a little reminder to jerk a memory and bring back recollections of those days gone by. Each week we print an old photo submitted by an Antioch resident. Some we will be able to identify. For others, we leave it to you to search your own mental scrapbook. Call us if you can identify a photo. Better yet, if you have a memorable photo to share, bring it in to the office.

Fannie and Fred Yates missed out on leaving for their vacation by just a few hours this last week. Fred became ill and had to be taken to the hospital. Get well, Fred!

Word has it that a referendum will be held for the Antioch Grade School on July 15th.

Barb & Ray Gallagher and their two children just returned from California via train to and from. Bet the scenery was nice, hey Barb?

Mr & Mrs. Gordon DeBoer and son David attended the June 9, 1972 wedding of their niece, Karen Stephen, a former resident of Antioch and Phillip Dast in Big Rapids, Mich., where they both attended Ferris College. They are making their home in Petoskey, Mich., for the summer where he is interning as a pharmacist. Then they will return to Big Rapids for his final year in college. Karen Becvar of Antioch was maid of honor at the wedding. The DeBoer family went on to Niagara Falls and then to Spooner, Wis. for a few days vacation.

See ya at the Firemen's dance Saturday night!!

June Is Dairy Month

The Millburn Hornets 4-H Club is busy promoting dairy products this month. June is Dairy Month and the Millburn Hornets would like everyone to join them in promoting dairy products. The Millburn Hornets are placing posters in many stores in the Lakeland area to promote these dairy foods. The Ravensglenn farm will be the site of the Millburn Hornets next 4-H meeting where they will receive a tour of the farm.

Arsenic And Old Lace Funniest Show Of Season

The charming and bizarre characters in ARSENIC AND OLD LACE came to life on the PM & L stage last Saturday night as the curtains opened on the last show of the the PM & L's Season 11. There are two more weekends to see this laugh-filled comedy-mystery on June 23, 24, 30 and July 1 at the PM & L Theatre, 877 Main St., Antioch. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

A large opening night audience chuckled at the lovable but naughty Brewster sisters played by Shirley Jensen and Aileen Biel. They roared with laughter at the antics of Teddy Brewster played most pompously by Tom Hausman and the hilarious Dr. Einstein characterized by Don Veveroth, a master at "character" roles.

The frustrations of drama critic Mortimer Brewster, Bill Simpson, trying to keep himself from going insane while coping with his aunts and the sinister Jonathan Brewster played by 6' 7" Bob Bundy lead to many perfectly timed double takes and complicated situations.

Other cast members include Kris Bates, Paul Biel, Frank Harnish, Hank Apostol, Russell Matthews, Bill Sershon, George Blanksten, Gerry Pettera, and 2 unknown corpses.

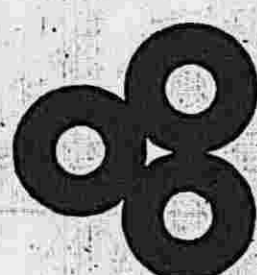

Don't miss the funniest show of the season directed by Ken Smouse. Call 395-9702 for reservations. Seating is limited and seats are going fast for the coming performances.

8th Annual Miss Teenager Pageant

Two Antioch girls, Fran Colette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colette of Rt. 2 Box 156, Antioch, and Mary Palaske, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Palaske, 900 Hillside Ave., Antioch, are presently in the running in the Miss Illinois Teenager Pageant to be held at the Holiday Inn, South, in Harvey, Illinois, August 4 and 5.

Girls 13-17 are judged on scholastic achievement, civic contributions, poise, personality and appearance.

Hoping to teach Spanish someday, Miss Colette is 15 years old and a junior at Antioch High School active in Student Council, GAA, and many other activities. She has achieved scholastic recognition as a member of the National Spanish Honor Society.

Fifteen year old Mary Palaske is a junior at Antioch Community High School. Scholastically in the upper 5 percent of the nation, Mary is also a class officer active in GAA, Spanish Club and several other activities. Her ambition is to be a nurse.

Both Antioch contestants are on the Fashion Board at Wiebolt's and do part time modeling.

The winner of this pageant will be a contestant in the Miss National Teen Ager Finals which will be held at the Memorial Arts Center in Atlanta, Georgia on August 26. Miss Illinois Teen Ager will receive a four-day tour of Atlanta while she attends the National Finals. This will include her food, lodging, and round trip plane flight to Atlanta where the state winners will be staying at the Regency Hyatt House and Marriott Hotel. Winner from Illinois currently is Miss Ann Bossingham of Le Roy, who won the title over 89 contestants last year in Springfield.

Theme of the National Finals is "What's Right About America?" and each state winner will be asked to write a 100 word theme on this subject as part of the national judging.

The pageant is recognized nation-wide by civic, political and educational leaders as a most outstanding, worthwhile recognition of teen-age young ladies for their civic-mindedness in their community and their scholastic ability. This is a constructive program that in each state holds an official state pageant, in which a girl is chosen to represent her state for a year, and the National Teen Ager Pageant gives $75,000 in Scholarships on a state-wide basis during the course of a year, plus the National Scholarships, and all to an accredited Jr. College.

Applications may be obtained by writing Official Certification Headquarters for the state of Illinois, 126 Bunn Drive, Rockton, Illinois 61072.

Postal Service Publishes Book For Novice, Veteran Collectors

"Stamps and Stories, The Exciting Saga of U.S. History Told in Stamps," has been published by the United States Postal Service and goes on sale at the post office tomorrow.

Postmaster Walter Barnas said this is the first U.S. Postal Service book to fully illustrate U.S. stamps in color and to list the values on each issue from 1847 through mid-1972. The book was prepared by the editors of Scott Publishing Co., the nation's oldest printer of stamp catalogs.

"While pertinent philatelic information such as Scott identification numbers is included, the book extends far beyond the range of a catalog. 'Stamps and Stories...' contains illustrated stories covering many highlights in history that have been portrayed on stamps," master Barnas said.

The history as told by the stamp itself has been expanded by the book text to provide insights into the person or event portrayed. There are 114 stories to augment the stamp. About 2,000 stamps are reproduced.

As in no other U.S. Postal Service publication, the book points up the American heritage and should enhance the fascination of stamp collecting.

FRAMING STRETCHED CANVAS. Summertime is exhibit time and almost every shopping center, street fair and park offers artists the opportunity to display their talents either for sale purposes or in competition. In competitive art shows, your chances of winning ribbons are greater if your work is well framed. Judges do not consider the frame as part of the painting, but will, consciously, reject a poorly framed entry. You may have found what you consider a lovely frame in an antique show or bargain barn, but do not use it for competitive art shows. Be on the safe side and use the following simple method of framing stretched canvases.

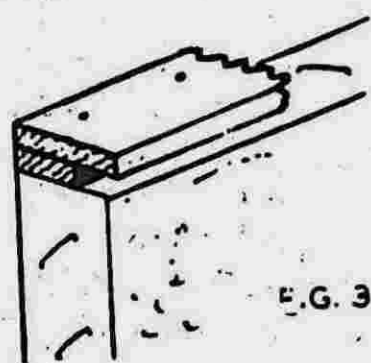

At your local lumber supply store, select $\frac{1}{4}$ " thick lattice, which comes in various widths: $1\frac{1}{8}$ ", $1\frac{1}{2}$ ", and $1\frac{3}{4}$ ". The width should be as wide or slightly wider than the thickness of your stretcher frame. If you followed my suggestions for making your own stretcher frames, you will need the widest width, $1\frac{3}{4}$ ". Bought stretcher frames can use either of the narrower widths. Cut the lattice in lengths that will fit around your picture, either overlapping the lengths as in fig. 1 or by using mitre cuts as in fig. 2.

Before tacking the frame to your picture, you need to paint the sides of the lattice strips. Flat black paint is usually the best choice, although sometimes a carefully chosen color works well to complement the painting. The narrow front edge of the frame is sometimes effectively painted in a contrasting color, or gold or white.

If you want a bolder, heavier look to the frame, use the following suggestion. Use a filler strip of the $1\frac{1}{8}$ " lattice between the frame and the picture, as shown in the cross-section in fig. 3.

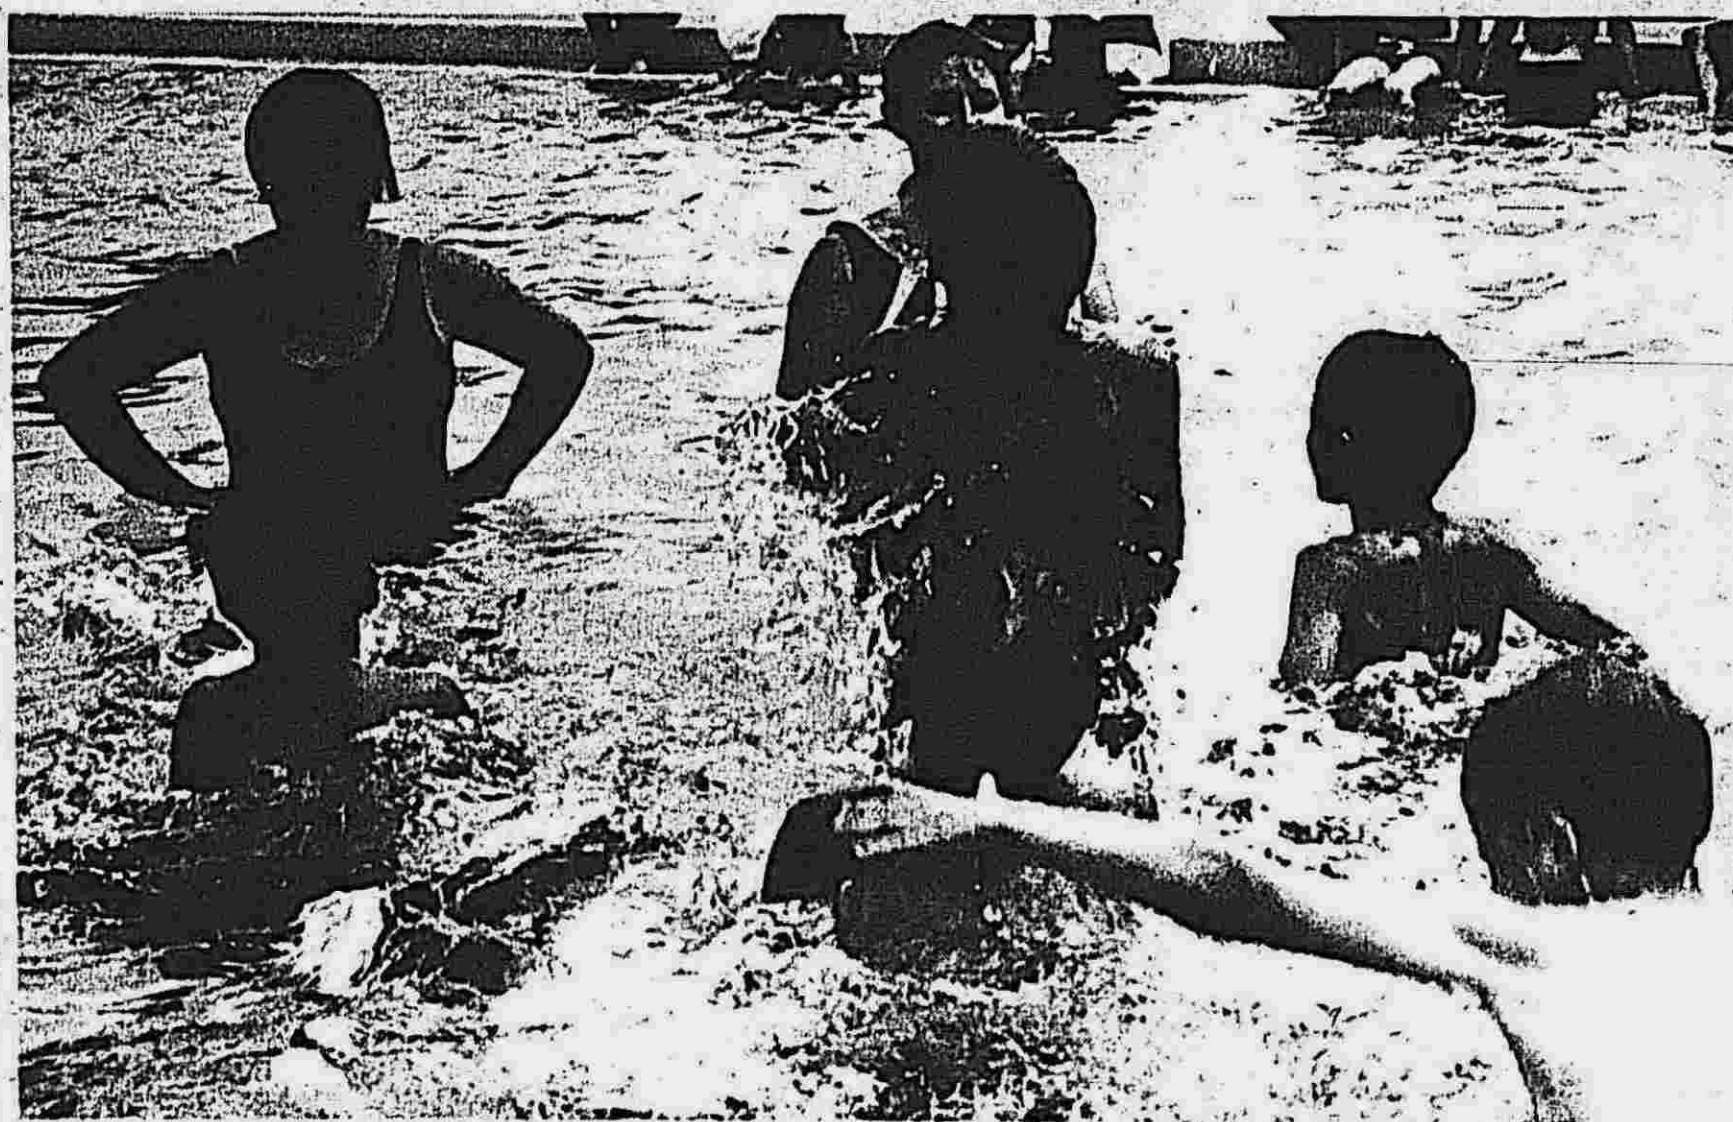

Paint the side of the canvas, the filler strip and the inside of the frame flat black and the outer side and the edge of the frame whatever colors you wish. The black paint gives the effect of empty space between your picture and the frame. Try it and see how effective this is.

For proper and safe hanging it is important to: 1. Use woven picture wire, never cord or string. 2. Use screw eyes, never nails to hold the wires and 3. Put the screw eyes in one third of the way down from the top of the painting, with just a slight slack in the wire. Your painting will then hang just right and look its best.

Happy framing.

HOLIDAY PARK features a spacious dining room which serves the very finest in culinary offerings, foreign and domestic wines and tempts the adventurous to sample the smorgasbord. The room's oversize windows provide an excellent view of the exquisite landscape.

Once you have wandered on the grounds, you will understand the attraction that has sparked even the non-outdoorsman. For, the property is supplied with many attractions sure to beckon you on.

In the summer, Wooster and Bruce Lakes are filled with swimmers, while others roam the grounds to picnic or to enjoy the carnival-like features.

During the winter months, the action is just a few steps from the main building as the 200 foot vertical cliff and the 1300 foot horizontal hill calls you to challenge on one of its six ski runs. A large ice skating rink is also close at hand.

But, if the out of doors is not to your liking, you can while away many a happy hour at the lounge, which features live entertainment on weekend evenings.

Whether it be summer or any of the seasons, HOLIDAY PARK is a journey that once taken will be repeated with delighted anticipation.

A clever trick of hamburger fans is to tuck a surprise in the middle of a hamburger — a pickle, slice of tomato or cheese.

It's done by making two thin hamburger patties and sandwiching them together with the surprise in the middle. An extra surprise for hamburger lovers is that of serving the hamburger on toasted English muffins. The muffins don't get soggy the way ordinary hamburger buns do and offer far more flavor.

SURPRISE IN A HAMBURGER

- 2 pounds ground beef
- 1 medium size onion grated
- 1/2 cup tomato juice
- 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
- 1 teaspoon bottled steak sauce
- 4 slices process American cheese, cut in quarters
- 8 Thomas' English muffins
- Butter or margarine

Mix beef lightly with onion, tomato juice, salt and steak sauce. Shape into 16 patties. Put 2 quarters of cheese between 2 patties; seal edge. Split English muffins by scoring with tines of fork and then gently pulling apart. Toast; butter, keep warm. Broil patties 4 inches from source of heat 4 minutes on each side or until browned. Serve hamburgers between toasted muffin halves. Makes 8 servings.

Reimer Starts IRA Win Streak On Father's Day

Lake Geneva, Wis.-Johnny Reimer got a win streak going in IRA super modifieds this week and extended it at the Lake Geneva Raceway with a win in the Father's Day 30 lap feature. Reimer took the lead from Dick Aissen on the 15th lap and had a big lead at the end. His two previous wins in the week came at the end of races at the Waukegan Speedway and at Wilmet.

Behind Reimer it was a much closer battle with Ron Bergsma taking second spot from Bob Leyland just inches before the finish line. Aissen was fourth and then it was Butch Bergsma, Joel Reimer and Roger Isles.

Whitey Harris, point leader at Lake Geneva, whose car arrived too late to qualify, drove. Stan Horton's car in the feature, but due to a spin by McKay Harris stopped to avoid hitting the car and missed a lap finishing 9th at the end. McKay was 10th. Earlier McKay had broken his own track record with a run of 16.57 seconds. The old record was 16.59.

Ten lap heat race winners were Dick Heinz; Harris Roger Otto; and Aissen. Jim Cameron, Kenosha won the 15 lap semi-feature after taking the

The Sportsman feature race was won by Cal Clark who held off Jack Ashenbrenner who had set fast time and won his heat. Had he won the feature he would have scored the second straight clean sweep.

Reimer Wins Wilmot IRA 50

IRAdefending super modified stock car Champion, Johnny Reimer, Caladonia, moved on the outside from his 11th starting position to take third spot just as point leader Whitey Harris, Lake Villa and leader Mike Schissel, Oak Creek, were involved in an accident that saw neither of them able to continue after a red flag, giving Reimer the lead and the win in the first 50 lap race of the season at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot on Saturday night.

Schissel, who was leading, drove his right rear tire over the left front wheel of the Harris car. This sent Schissel flipping end over end and tore the wheel assembly off the Harris car. The accident happened on the 21st lap and on the restart Reimer, who had already moved around the strong contenders, easily led to the end.

Behind Reimer however, the battle for spots was a heated duel between Dick Duston, Muskego, Roger Otto, Burling-

Reimer Sets Record Wins Waukegan Main

Johnny Reimer, Caladonia, champion of the IRA Super modifieds and Rookie Jim Moulis, Antioch were the principles of the 30 lap feature race as the Interstates Racing Association of super-modifieds opened a weekly series of Thursday night racing at the Waukegan Speedway on June 15.

For Champion Reimer, it was the kind of racing he loves. He worked his way from the back to catch Moulis on the 16th lap but then raced with all his skill trying to pass the leader going into the number one turn on the outside. However, until the 25th lap, when Moulis spun bringing out the red flag, Reimer was unable to gain the advantage and the two raced side by side in a brilliant display of driving control and competition.

Reimer, who had earlier set a new track record of 13.83 seconds for an average speed of 65.07 MPH, was using all of that speed and more in the close race with Moulis. On the restart, Moulis was placed at the back of the pack because the race was stopped for him and Reimer had no trouble staying ahead of Denny McKay who had been second until the last lap when mechanical problems forced him to slow and drop to tenth in the finish.

Ron Bergsma, who had been steadily moving up, finished second ahead of Paul Cameron, Round Lake; Dave Bliss, Algonquin; Bob Leyland, Crystal Lake and Moulis.

Two previous starts in the feature saw the cars of Joel Reimer, Milwaukee, Whitey Harris, Lake Villa and Ron Marish, Milwaukee eliminated due to collisions. Earlier, Butch Bergsma, Richmond crashed with another car and narrowly escaped hitting the concrete wall. Joel Reimer's car flipped over but none of the drivers were injured.

Ten lap heat race winners were Marish; Chuck Rahn, Villa Park; Moulis; and Leyland.

It was Reimers third feature ton and Aaron Solsrud, Menomonee Falls. Each had been in second once or twice throughout the race and finished in something less than a two-car length span at the checkered flag. Denny McKay, Elgin was fifth and this after a uphill drive that almost carried his car into the cockpit of Milwaukee's John Hill following a half loop spin by Hill on the third lap. Both restarted but one lap later it was again necessary for starter Roger Cox to bring out the red flag when Hill again spun and this time with a broken axle and unable to move off the track.

Ron Marish, Milwaukee, set fast time among the 57 modifieds that took time trials as he averaged 51.48 MPH in his 17.48 second run. He finished ninth after running up as far as fifth.

Ten lap heat race winners were Johnny Olson, Round Lake; Fred Zack, Milwaukee; Ken Monroe, Pell Lake; Dick Aisson, McHenry and Jim Bozeman, Waukegan, Allen Kautz, Twin Lakes won the 12 lap consolation race and Roger Isles, Waukegan won the 15 lap semi-feature. There were two restarts in the semi. The first when Jim Cameron, Kenosha and Jim Moulis, Antioch collided on the front straightaway and later when Stan Horton, Antioch and Ray Stevens, Richmond locked up in the first turn.

Jim Cmelak, Okkauchee set fast time in the Sportsman stocks and won the feature in a close finish over Sid Norton, McHenry. Earlier, brother Duke Norton had held off Cmelak to win a heat. Other heat race wins were scored by Lou Snyder, Arlington Heights; and Craig Lake, Kenosha. The attendance was 4332 and the purse $4248.00.

win in the last four races on the IRA super circuit and he moved close to the overall point lead held by Harris. Reimers qualifying record wiped out two previous new records set on the same night by McKay who had turned in a 13.95 and a 13.89 second run. McKay held the former record of 13.96 seconds which was set on May 26, 1972.

Hinzpeter From Last To Sweep Geneva Stocks

Ken Hinzpeter, Twin Lakes, started at the back of the field of HATO stocks at the Lake Geneva Raceway Saturday night for two fast reasons. Number one, he won the 25 lap feature on the previous week and that automatically makes him a last place starter and number two, he set fast time, which under any other rules, would have also placed him at the back on the start. Earlier he also won his heat and with his victory in the feature again, he scored the clean sweep.

Richard Drew won the early leader but was passed by Joe Sansone and led until Hinzpeter roared by on the 15th lap to finish ahead of Jerry Straube, Gil Shilts, George Weyroch and Drew.

Other heat race winners were Bob Peterson and Weyroch. Steve McCarty won the 15 lap semi-feature ahead of Bill Christensen, Franksville.

Charles Clark won the spectator stock car feature ahead of Dan Weber and Chris Duecy. Dave Ingersoll made his initial race effort a winner's success as he won the semi-feature. Clark also won his heat but missed the clean sweep as fast time honors went to Richard Grabel.

Go Karts also raced and the open competition rule is attracting more and more of these potent buzz-bombs.

A special Friday night June 30 race date has been set by HATO racing at Lake Geneva that will feature the three classes of Sportsman, Spectator and Go-Karts. The special is planned to kick off the holiday weekend of racing for the Lake Geneva Raceway that will also include the regular Saturday night July 1 racing program as well as the IRA Sunday night date for the Super modifieds and sportsman stocks on July 2.

Jim Cossman Slips In For Win At Waukegan

Waukegan, Illinois-June 17, 1972-Rookie Dennis Johnson of Arlington Heights nearly picked off his first feature win ever by leading the late model feature at the Waukegan Speedway until the 27th lap. Waukegan's Jim Cossman slipped past at that point for his third win of the year.

Johnson passed Bob Delaney of Keeneyville in the 5th lap for the lead and had a five car-length margin when Cossman edged by Lee Schuler of Lockport in the 24th lap. With the end near, Cossman caught Johnson and passed him in the 27th lap with Schuler gaining second at that point and Johnson dropping into third.

Vern Browne of Mundelein finished in 4th spot with Gary Zobel of Mundelein 5th. Zobel had the night's best qualifying lap tying the record of .14.53 held by Carl Major of Chicago.

Several late model heat race accidents resulted in lots of bent sheet metal but no injuries. In one pile-up Zobel spun with Delaney being hit by both Chuck Chadwick of Lake Zurich and Tom Musgrave of Mundelein.

Another saw Her Artelt of Wildwood tangled with Johnson and red lights on when Rich Oertel of Palatine lost control and slammed into the two.

George Dukas of Park City became the first hobby stock driver ever to clock in the 15 second bracket at the Waukegan Speedway when he turned a .15.95 time lap Saturday night.

His heat race win put him in the position for another clean sweep, but he couldn't get by Chuck Bostick of Waukegan in the final lap of the main event. Roger Gentry of Racine took third money.

Schuler won both the trophy dash and a heat race in the late models while Al Gutche of Pleasant Prairie (Wis.) won the other heat race.

Records Posted On Each Event By Tom Jones

Waukegan, Illinois-June 18, 1972-Tom Jones of Northbrook brought his new 1972 Chevelle to the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night setting fast time and winning the 30 lap feature... posting records on each event.

Jones lowered the one-lap standard to .14.32 for the new tires and then he passed Lee Schuler of Lockport for the feature lead in the 16th lap. His time in that event was 7:23.18 which was .72 better than Jim Cossman's time the night previous.

Bob Roper of Chicago paced the feature for the first four laps before Schuler took over. Jones passed Roper for second on the 9th lap and rapidly closed the gap. Schuler was second, Roper third with last Sunday's feature winner, Rich Kleich of Chicago fourth.

The hobby feature race had to be stopped in the third lap after Cliff Burdette of Sturtevant (Wis.) slammed into Red Hacker of North Chicago whose car was stalled against the pit wall. There were no injuries.

Once the green flag was back out, George Dukas of Zion breezed into the lead and was home for another win. Skip Don Waukegan was second and Ted Richter of Libertyville finished third.

Possibly the most exciting race of the night was the second heat race for the late model drivers. Future Industries of Antioch has been offering a $25.00 award for any late model driver to win two fast heat races in a row. Tonight Lee Schuler had a chance for the money and he was starting in the front row.

Fans had added enough money to bring the bonus to $55.00. Dennis Johnson of Arlington Heights led for four laps, but then Vern Browne of Mundelein grabbed the lead. Schuler then came from third to first in the next lap, before Browne regained the lead.

In the final lap Jones caught Browne and really put the pressure on to the finish with Browne clocked in a new 10-lap record.

Guest Speakers Highlight Hastings Benefit

Hastings Y.M.C.A. recently announced plans for future development at a June 13th luncheon which was highlighted by guest appearances by Gale Sayers and John and Jeannie Morris.

Included in the plans are a project to cover the outdoor swimming pool and an effort to enlarge the acreage of the Lake Villa camp.

The fund raiser was the vehicle to publicize the need for donations for a multi-staged development geared to change the image of the camp to a full service Y facility.

However, along with the appeal came an entertaining and informative sports discussion from the guest speaker

Sayers, the record breaking running back and perennial all-pro with the Chicago Bears delighted the luncheoners with his personal insight into the game. Predicting a "break even" season, Sayers drew a most favorable response with his candid assessment of the team's chances.

The Morris', a husband and wife newscasting team, proved extremely entertaining as each gave a brief speech and then fielded questions from the audience.

For further information about the fund drive, call the Hastings Camp (356-5487)

Rifles Rookies Look Good

There was a new no nonsense atmosphere when 75 players trying out for the Lake County Rifles met their new head coach Jesse Vail Tuesday (June 13).

The players, particularly the veterans were surprised when they noticed the huge size and physical condition of the rookies, all of whom have credentials far more impressive than rookies in the past seasons.

Typical of the remarks by veterans was that of Joseph Wolfe, 30, a former all state player with Fenwick high school and the University of Illinois who said, "until I saw the new competition, I thought I was a defensive tackle. . .but now I don't know what position I will play this year."

The players come from around the country, the result of a massive nationwide recruiting effort by the Rifles in which they were in contact nationwide with more than 800 players. Vail said he expects another 75 players to turn up when practice starts June 26 at Carmel Field in Mundelein.

He told the players he expects one thing of them: "To win." As a professional coach elsewhere Vail teams won 49 and lost only 9 games. The Lake County Rifles in their seven seasons have won or tied for 5 division championships, finished second twice and twice won the championship of the Central States League, the oldest minor league in the country.

Vail introduced his staff and within minutes the players from their seats were working on football problems, including how to respond to the snap of the ball from the center under Vail's system. The coach said there are going to be some surprises for the veterans and every one of them are going to have to earn his position.

The Rifles home schedule begins July 29 with the games played in Carmel Field, Mundelein.
